- I loved the experience in the sport even if we didn't win. I loved the sport, and I am definitely doing it the next 3 years.
- More team bonding.
- I would like the coaches to push us a little harder.
- I don't have any ideas for changes. I think that some things could improve regarding the players. Some people need to respect the coaches more and let them coach the team. I also think that the players need to believe in themselves and not get so discouraged by their mistakes. Players also need to work on focusing in practice and the game so they can play to the best of their abilities.
